

Musical Vita

Willi Becker (*1952) is an experienced chorus and orchestra conductor. Festivals and competitions all over Germany and beyond appreciate his knowledge and experience as lecturer and juror.

Willi Becker studied school music and music sciences. He was the director of the State Youth Choir (1985-1995) and the State Music Academy (1995 to 1999) of Rhineland-Palatinate. From 1999 to end of 2016 Willi Becker was music coordinator in the "Kultursommer" of the state of Rhineland-Palatinate.

Willi Becker was successful with his choirs at national and international choral competition. Concert tours brought him and his ensembles to venues and festivals throughout Europe, to Russia, Japan, the USA and South America. CD's, records, radio and television productions document his extensive choral and concert activities.

Today Willi Becker – as a consultant – makes his knowledge and contacts available to interested festivals and ensembles. He is looking forward to making new musical discoveries and experiences.
